Interfaith Week. The importance of people of differing faiths seek to come together to get to know each better has taken on a new significance and urgency following recent events in the Middle East and people of good will of all faiths and none are called upon to build good relationships locally. 12th - 19th November marks Interfaith Week and this year's theme is "Harmony in a World of Crisis." Two important events are taking place.
i) a celebration of the collective faith communities of Calderdale on Wednesday 15th November at Halifax Minster between 6.00pm and 9.00pm to which all are welcome.
ii) Events and a faith walk from the Jami'Masjid Noorani mosque on Gibraltar Road to St.Hilda's church commencing at 1.30pm on Saturday 18th November.
